BEHAVIOR RULES

The resources of the HPC Center, including the central computers and their programs, the local and remote connection networks, the program libraries and the support provided by the staff, provide services only for the achievement of the purposes set out in the Statuto of the Scuola Normale Superiore and in compliance of Italian law. Explicit authorization must be requested to use the resources of the HPC Center. The user must comply with the following rules.

1 General use 1.1 While using the resources, an authorized user must comply with the Centre Regulations, the provisions in force and the instructions of the HPC staff.

2 Access codes and their keys 2.1 The access codes (accounts) must be used in a way compatible with the purpose for which they were assigned. 2.2 Each user must take all reasonable precautions to protect his account and data from unauthorized access. 2.3 The user will immediately inform the HPC Staff of any unauthorized access attempt.

3 Data and material protection of other users 3.1 A registered user must respect the work environment of others, as well as the confidential nature of any data or material that may have become available, both during normal work and inadvertently.

4 Control of resources 4.1 A registered user must comply with the provisions in force and the instructions of the personnel in charge regarding the use of resources. 4.2 The user will inform the HPC Center of any change of his position towards the Scuola Normale Superiore, in particular in case of departure or change of activity group.

5 Intellectual property of the Scuola Normale Superiore and property of others 5.1 The Scuola Normale Superiore is the sole owner of the intellectual rights associated with its HPC system, programs and documents, therefore no user and no other person can reproduce them in any way or make them available to the public without formal written consent. 5.2 Some programs provided by external companies remain the intellectual property of those companies. 5.3 Users must therefore use these programs and support material in accordance with the conditions set out in the license of use. 5.4 In particular, these programs can be used only on authorized machines and copies of it may require a new license. 5.5 In case of doubt, the user will request the opinion of the HPC Committee. If the intellectual property is deliberately violated or following serious negligence, the implicated user will consequently see his responsibility involved.

6 Warning 6.1 In the event of ascertained violation of one of these rules, or in the event of abuse of the resources of the HPC Center which causes damage to other internal and external students, or in the event of damage to the security and integrity of the system, the User will be cautioned by the HPC Staff. If this warning is ignored, the user will be excluded by provision of the Director of the Scuola Normale Superiore of access to the resources of the HPC Center and will be charged for any pecuniary damages that may be caused.

The undersigned _____ declares to have read these regulations.
